VOL. XX.—NO. 6000

PORTLAND, OREGON: SATURDAY JULY 10, 1880.

PRICE—TEN CENTS

GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Funeral of Wm. T. Pelton.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The funeral of the late Wm. Tilden Pelton, nephew and secretary of ex-Gov. Tilden, took place this afternoon from Mr. Tilden's residence, No. 15 Gramercy Park. Among those present were ex-Police Commissioner McLean, Corporation Counsel Whitney, Mayor Cooper, Clarkson N. Potter, Col. John R. Fellow and Andrew H. Green. The pall bearers were Gen. John M. Corse, Alfred J. and Alonzo E. Dickerson, Francis S. Abell, Smith M. Weed and Edward L. Parris.

A Sad Case.

DANVILLE, Va., July 9.—Last night about midnight Thomas D. DeJarnette entered a bagnio enquiring for Mollie DeJarnette, and at his request the two went to a private room. Repeated pistol shots followed. The police broke into the room and the girl was found on the floor, her brother standing by, pistol in hand. He immediately confessed shooting his sister, saying that he had done it to wipe out the disgrace of the family. The girl was shot five times, two of which would have been fatal. She protests that her brother was right in taking her life, and begs that he be not punished. Before the brother was taken to prison he and his sister embraced. The brother is a telegraph operator, aged 20. The sister is 17 years old.

Negro Hanged.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—Geo. Allen Price (colored), murderer of Villie Black, a tobacco merchant, was hanged in the yard of the Hamilton county jail this morning. He was formerly a Catholic, then a Baptist and later of no faith whatever, except that he expressed himself reliant upon divine clemency if there were a hereafter. He refused priestly intervention, and hoped for pardon from the governor till within two hours of the end, and was especially anxious about his surviving wife and children. He drank a great deal of whisky this morning, and wrote Judge Langwood, who sentenced him, asking his forgiveness for an abusive letter he had written. He expressed hope that there might be a hereafter that he might repay the many kindnesses done him by the ladies. He fully realized the justice of his punishment.

Execution in North Carolina.

GOLDSBORO, July 9.—The execution of a negro, Alex. Howard, for the murder of an old white man named Babel in July, 1873, took place here to-day and was witnessed by about 2000 people. Howard protested his innocence to the last and made a very bitter harangue from the scaffold, but the crime was fully proven against him by his step son, who was his accomplice in the deed.

Another Raid on the Indian Territory.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Private dispatches from Arkansas City, Kansas, say that Capt. Payne, who left the southern border of Kansas last Monday with a party of some 300 men on a second invasion of the Indian territory, has reached his destination without molestation. It will be recollected that Capt. Payne invaded Indian territory last spring in violation of the president's proclamation, and was ejected by the military. He now defies the authority of the government, and courts arrest and trial to determine in the courts whether his acts are in violation of any law. Parties are here purchasing machinery of different kinds, goods, etc., for shipment to the Payne colony, and it is said that an office will be opened here to induce immigration to the territory.

Killed by a Train.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 9.—This morning while Philip Schumade, a leading merchant of this city, and his wife, were crossing the Pennsylvania railway, near Salunga, their carriage was struck by the Niagara express and both occupants killed.

Execution in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, July 9.—Henry Ryan, colored, was hung in Welsbire, Burke county, Ga., to-day for the murder of a negro woman named Mary Thomas in December last. He killed her to get her money, about $6. He confessed yesterday that he committed the deed. The execution was witnessed by fully 7000 people.

Soldiers' Home Election.

BOSTON, July 9.—The board of managers of the home for disabled soldiers met here to-day. The following officers were elected: President, Gen. Wm. B. Franklin, Connecticut; first vice president, Col. Leonard A. Harris, Ohio; second vice president, Gen. Richard Coulter, Pennsylvania; secretary, Gen. Martin McMahon, New York.

Loss by the Illinois Flood.

HANNIBAL, Mo., July 8.—The Herald this afternoon has an elaborate article on losses by breaks in the levee on the Illinois and Mississippi river. After stating that the levee is 52 miles long, extending from a point 9 miles south of Quincy to Hannibal bay, 9 miles south of Clarkeville, and that it redeems 101,280 acres of land, it makes an estimate of losses by the number of acres in wheat, which were overflowed, by the average yearly product per acre, which at present prices would show a loss on wheat of $400,000, and about the same amount on corn. Other losses as to fences, barns, dwellings, farming implements, etc., will reach fully $100,000, making the total loss half a million. Not less than one third of the wheat or corn crop of the state is lost. The overflow from the break was nearly 70 hours traveling 23 miles, which gave many farmers time to save much property outside of growing crops.

Damaging Storm in Central Iowa.

DES MOINES, July 9.—There was a very heavy rainfall in central Iowa last night. The wind did considerable damage to outhouses. At Buffalo four houses and a mill were blown down and one man is reported killed named Bearns. At Hanover, in this county, two barns and several granaries were destroyed by the wind. Trains were detained fifteen hours on the Rock Island road by a wash out at Van Meter. The damage to crops in this county is great.

Counter Opinion in the Indiana Cases.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 8.—Judges Niblack and Scott of the supreme court filed an opinion to-day dissenting from the majority in the case involving the validity of the adoption of amendments to the state constitution.

Fire at Indianapolis.

The Hoosier State flouring mills were partially burned to-day. Loss estimated at $25,000.

Criminally Liable.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A coroner's jury find Halstead, the owner of the boat which exploded her boilers with fatal effect, criminally liable.

Children Burned.

Two children of a man named Funrose were burned to-day in his house near Franconia.

Railroad Traffic.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Thus far 39 railroads have reported their traffic for June, and the account stands as follows: 1880, $17,859,013; 1879, $13,064,656—an increase of $791,359 for the first half of the year; 33 roads have reported officially, and the totals are as follows: 1880, $82,044,776; 1879, $65,077,485—an increase of $16,967,291. Included in the returns for six months are the earnings of a few important roads like the New York Central, Northwestern, St. Paul, Illinois Central, Central Pacific and Wabash, but otherwise the totals are made up from statements of comparatively unimportant lines. The figures of Lake Shore, Erie, Michigan Central, Canada Southern; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; Union Pacific; Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio companies, are wanting. If the earnings of these roads were at hand and added to the total of the 33 lines already given, then the traffic for the past half year of 1880 would appear marvelous. The New Central gains $630,000 for June and $3,555,000 for nine months; Lake Shore gains $430,000 for June; Chesapeake and Ohio earnings increase $140,000 for the first six months of the year; the Chicago and Alton gains $1,218,000 for the same period; the traffic of the Northern Pacific increases $62,000 in June, and the Denver and Rio Grande gains $50,000 for the first week of July.

The Reading Road.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—Receivers of the Reading railroad and coal and iron companies to-day, made a partial report to the court and stated that they are unable as yet to make a full report as to the state, condition and circumstances of the property of the companies as desired, but that they will give such statements as soon as necessary.

Grant at Santa Fe.

SANTA FE, July 9.—Gen. Grant and party arrived here yesterday and will remain four days. A salute of 39 guns was fired by a detachment of troops. A reception and banquet will be given to-night. The general will visit the mines to-morrow.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Hancock Weak in Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—It is certain that the claims made at Cincinnati that the democrats would carry Pennsylvania were idle boasts. Hancock is weak in his own state.

Cabinet Meeting.

At a cabinet meeting to-day there was some discussion as to the advisability of the exercise of the president's power to withhold the expenditure of some portions of the money appropriated by the last river and harbor bill, but it was decided that the entire amount appropriated should be expended as fast as the war department in each particular case may consider desirable. The subject of the St. Louis district attorneyship also came up for discussion, but action upon it was not reached.

A Delinquent Official.

An urgent appeal to the president was made some six weeks since and again on the 16th of June for the removal of U. S. Marshal Fitzsimmons, upon the ground of lukewarmness in supporting internal revenue officers in their efforts to break up illicit distilling in the state of Georgia. It was even claimed that the course of this officer proved a positive obstruction to the execution of the laws, and that while the revenue officers in every other state had succeeded in fully enforcing the revenue laws, in Georgia alone moonshiners continued to defy them and were more or less encouraged by officers who should naturally be expected to vigorously enforce the laws, but who fail to show any inclination to do so. In the case of Marshal Fitzsimmons, although considerable pressure was brought to bear upon the president for his removal, no action has yet been taken, and so far as can be learned, the matter has not yet been brought to the attention of the cabinet. His case differs from that of District Attorney Farrow in that his commission has not expired and his removal during recess of congress, except for good and sufficient cause, would directly antagonize the tenure of office act.

Relating to the Census.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—A set of special schedules for recording statistics relating to Indians is being prepared by Col. Mallory of the army. The schedules will be so arranged that all the material facts regarding the situation, number and condition of each tribe will be given under their appropriate heads. Walker, superintendent of census, has assigned the task of procuring as full and accurate census statistics as possible of Indians not taxed to Major Powell and his assistants, who are working under the Smithsonian Institution. Superintendent Walker, in order to give wide circulation of the result of his work, has devised plans whereby special portions of it may be available without costing a great amount of money. He proposes that each of the more important subjects of inquiry be published in a volume by itself in quarto form, that they may be bound together if so desired, and also to issue a pocket edition for the use of business men.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

LONDON, July 8.—In the house of commons to-night, on a motion to go into committee on compensation for the disturbance bill, Parnell said that if, instead of the bill as it now stood, the government had introduced one to extend to the whole of Ireland, the Ulster custom, as a permanent enactment, he would have supported the bill; but as it was, it would be necessary to move amendments to make the amendment of the attorney general effectual.

Foster said that the object of the bill was not to punish landlords, but to erect safeguards for the future and to prevent landlords from taking advantage of the existing state of things, so as to get possession of property.

Northcote said that the amendment of the attorney general was a complete change of front on the part of the government.

A motion that the house go into committee was then adopted—255 to 199.

In the house of commons this evening Arthur Arnold (liberal) gave notice that a month hence he would call attention to restrictions placed upon the importation of cattle, and would move a resolution in relation thereto.

Gladstone, replying to a question by Sir Henry D. Wolff (conservative), relative to the eastern policy, said that the government was very anxious to avoid surprising the country by anything like isolated action.

The house of commons is in committee on compensation for disturbance Ireland bill. A scene has just occurred. The government having accused the opposition of persistent obstruction, Gladstone said that the state of public business was very grave, but no waste of time would induce the government to abandon measures which they think important.

LONDON, July 9.—In the house of commons in committee this evening Parnell and other members for Ireland persisted in combatting the new clause of the compensation for disturbance bill, although it was before the committee before. A home ruler was called to order for defending the use of violence against certain landlords in Ireland, particularly the late Lord Leitrim. Mr. Mitchell Henry, home rule, in the course of debate, announced his intention to quit the land league. He said that he repudiated its extreme views.

The Irish Bill.

The Times in a leading article this forenoon points out that the majority for the government on the second reading of the bill for compensation for disturbance in Ireland, fell a hundred short of the united liberal and Irish strength. The apprehensions excited by the bill in the minds of many liberals have not been removed by Gladstone's impassioned and earnest pleading. Reluctance to accept the bill has not been led solely on the belief that it will be unjust to Irish laborers in its immediate operation, but partly on the question in all its length and breadth.

LONDON, July 9.—The Standard says: The policy decomposition is already beginning to tell upon its authors. Lord Landsdowne, one of the largest Irish territorial proprietors, has resigned, and his resignation has been accepted. Rumors were freely circulated last night of other members of the government who had expressed invincible objection to the compensation for the disturbance bill. Irish members refrained from voting on a motion to go into committee on the bill, in consequence of a new interpretation of the measure by the attorney general.

A Conscientious Minister.

LONDON, July 9.—It was rumored in the lobby of the house of commons last night that the marquis of Lansdowne, under secretary for India, had resigned in consequence of being unable conscientiously to support the compensation for disturbance bill in the house of lords, and also on account of being himself a holder of land in Ireland. Lord Elcho, liberal conservative, in consequence of the rumor asked in the house of commons whether it was a fact that Lord Lansdowne was no longer a member of the government. The inquiry was received by the opposition with cheers. Mr. Gladstone replied "Yes," whereupon the opposition's cheers were renewed.

England and the Porte.

LONDON, July 8.—In the house of commons to-day Sir Henry Wolff, conservative, asked whether the government had communicated with other powers relative to coercive measures in the refusal of the porte to accept the recommendations of the Berlin conference.

Gladstone said that the government's policy continues to be to prosecute the faithful fulfillment of the Berlin treaty. As the decision of the conference has not been presented to the porte, it would be want of decency and respect to the porte to presuppose that it will oppose the advice of Europe.

The Porte's Uncertain Attitude.

LONDON, July 8.—There was some panic on Berlin and Paris bourses yesterday owing to an unsteady feeling in regard to the attitude of the porte.

Eastern Affairs.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 9.—At midnight Sunday three transports left the arsenal for Volo and Prevesa with seven battalions of troops, five batteries and a quantity of ammunition. The troops were ordered to disembark stealthily. The disbandment of 4000 soldiers in Thessaly whose time is expired has been forbidden.

VIENNA, July 9.—Latest intelligence from Serajevo states that excitement caused by the attempted murder of Hassan Pasha has considerably abated. When Hassan Pasha ordered a general disarmament, Eyoub Bey, one of the most fanatical Mussulmans, with several followers went to him and protested against the measure. Hassan Pasha replied by striking Eyoub Bey with a stick, whereupon the followers of the latter threw themselves upon Hassan and he was taken to Mitrovitza it was thought mortally wounded.

The Indian Settlement.

LONDON, July 9.—Delay in bringing forward the Indian financial settlement causes the impression that some large reform is contemplated by the government relating to the liabilities of India.

Russia and China.

BERLIN, July 9.—The Chinese charge d'affairs at St. Petersburg has officially assured the Russian government that China does not wish to go to war with Russia, and that rumors of operations by Chinese on the Russian frontier are absolutely inventions.

LONDON, July 9.—The following telegram dated Peking, July 2d, was received in London yesterday. Chung How, Chinese ambassador to Russia, who negotiated the Kuldja treaty, has been reprieved, to show that China does not wish to hurt Russia's dignity, and desires continuance of friendly relations.

Lacks Confirmation.

In the house of commons to-day Premier Gladstone said that news of a Russian defeat by Chinese was not confirmed and was not believed either by Chinese or Russian representatives, and in the event of war breaking out, he said that the government will avail themselves of Russian offers to enter into communication respecting British interests.

The Amnesty Bill.

PARIS, July 9.—It is thought that the amnesty bill will now pass the senate by a small majority.

Another Island Born to the Azores Group.

LONDON, July 9.—An earthquake at the island of St. George, one of the Azores group, resulted in the formation of another island about 630 yards distant and about 1800 square yards in extent.

Belgian Bishops and the Vatican.

BRUSSELS, July 9.—All Belgian bishops have sent dispatches to the vatican declaring that their action will now be more free and more powerful since the rupture of diplomatic relations with Belgium.

The King of Greece.

LONDON, July 9.—The king of Greece has arrived in Berlin on his way to St. Petersburg.

Turkey and Greece.

A dispatch from Berlin says the opinion prevails in political circles here that the porte will decline to accept the resolutions of the conference, and that it will be impossible to prevent bloodshed between Turkey and Greece.

The Amnesty Bill Passed the Senate.

PARIS, July 9.—A committee of the senate adopted an amendment to the amnesty bill proposed by General Pellissier, on excluding incendiaries and assassins, and persons who have been condemned after due trial, from the benefit of the bill.

Jules Simon, addressing the committee after the adoption of this amendment, reminded the house that the most guilty communists were those condemned on contumacion, and consequently undefended, and that it would, under these circumstances, be unjust to pardon such men while others were excluded from the proposed benefit. If the senate voted amnesty with limitations agitation in the country would continue. The second part of the bill in the form proposed by the committee was adopted by a vote of 141 to 123. The senate then agreed to the amendment moved by Minord proposing that the exception made by the bill against murderers and incendiaries shall not apply to convicts whose sentences have already been commuted. The bill was finally passed by a vote of 176 to 98.

Hancock's Old Soldiers for Garfield.

[New York Evening Post.]

The democrats evidently hope that Gen. Hancock's old soldiers will all work and fight for him. There is one of them, who commanded a regiment, who certainly will not do so. He says "No, sir. All of the republican soldiers under Hancock will work against him. We have to choose between two soldiers, one a West Pointer, who has been fed by the government, and one who is a voluntary soldier and who made himself; and we shall vote for the volunteer. More than that, the Veteran Association is going to work to prepare a pamphlet contrasting Garfield with Hancock as soldiers, and the balance you may be certain, will be in favor of Garfield."

THE NICARAGUA ROUTE.

Location of the Canal and Estimates of its Cost—Etc., Etc.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Chief Engineer Menocal of the Nicaraguan Canal Company, who has just returned from Nicaragua, reports that several important improvements have been made in the route heretofore contemplated for that enterprise. But owing to the result of a summary of his personal investigations and surveys during the past few months: Through the division into Lake Nicaragua from the headquarters of the Rio Grande there is no falling into the Pacific. An excellent surface draining is secured and the Lajas route will be substituted for the line of the canal instead of the Rio Del Medio route. This will reduce the estimate for labor $3,000,000. It was found that from the mouth of the San Carlos river on the Atlantic slope, and falling into the San Juan river, the canal can be excavated almost in a direct line to Greytown, a distance of 35 miles, thus shortening the canal, as originally located, seven miles, without increasing the depth of the cuttings, and reduce the estimate four millions. An examination of the locality shows the probability that one dam across the San Juan river of 63 feet in height will be made above the mouth of the San Carlos. The effect will be to make an uninterrupted navigation of the river San Juan to this lake, a distance of sixty three miles, thence by Lake Nicaragua 56 miles to Virgin bay, making a total of 119 miles of unimpeded navigation, and an actual canalization on the east coast, as before stated, of 35 miles, and on the west coast of 17 miles, having seven lift locks, each of 15 feet, and a tide lock of 5 feet at Greto. The estimated cost approximately, as thus improved in location, will not exceed $45,000,000, exclusive of contingent expenses for surveys, supervision of labor and interest on money, and as an offset the concession granted by the government of Nicaragua contains grants of several thousand square miles of valuable land.

Why he was Sent.

[From the Chicago Times, Ind.]

Mr. Hendricks told the democratic Indianapolitans, on Monday evening, that General Hancock was sent to Louisiana and Texas during the reign of King Johnson, "to further oppress, subjugate, and ruin a portion of the south." Gen. Hancock was not sent to take command in Louisiana and Texas for any such purpose. He was sent there by Andrew Johnson for the purpose of rendering certain acts of congress nugatory and thwarting the will of the victorious part of the American people, and executing the will of a president who was the most misrepresentative of the people that ever occupied the White House. That was the purpose for which Gen. Hancock was sent to take command in Louisiana and Texas, and his success in accomplishing that purpose is what endears him to the hearts of the shotgun democracy.

A Respectable Figure-Head, That's All.

[From the New York Times.]

The ticket nominated by the democratic convention has fallen like a wave of cold water on the rank and file of the party. Hancock is, of course, a respectable figure-head; no one disputes that; but he has never been seriously thought of in connection with the presidency or with a great popular movement. He may be an estimable gentleman, and all that sort of thing, but he is not a man who in any sense appeals to the sympathies of the voters who contribute to democratic majorities. He is not a democrat. All his tendencies are aristocratic and most exclusive. The peculiar and not altogether agreeable air of the West Point graduate still clings to him.

Bradlaugh's Fiercest Assailants.

[From Philadelphia "Notes."]

Among the fiercest assailants of Mr. Bradlaugh's right to a seat were the Jewish and Roman Catholic members. Although they had to fight their way into the house, a generation back, against a similar exclusion, they opposed the removal of the restriction in this case, and set themselves against Mr. Bradlaugh's admission, not on moral but on theological grounds.

Congratulating Our Eagle.

LONDON, July 5.—The Times in an editorial on the American national anniversary, congratulates us on our happy situation and prospect commercially and practically, and declares that all mankind gain by the prosperity which the American people have succeeded in extracting from the noble land they tenant.

A GOOD ACCOUNT.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1200—all of which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

JOHN WEEKS, Butler, N. Y.

THEORY VS. FACTS.

All established theories are set aside by solid facts. The solid facts in this case are, that the business interests of our fair city have been more greatly enhanced within the past year by one single enterprise, conducted by one single mind, than by all other productive institutions in Rochester. We refer to the manufacture of Hop Bitters. The remedial properties of hops, with the herbs it produced, principally buchu, mandrake and dandelion, had long been known, but there had been so much mere stuff—aye, deleterious stuff—foisted upon the country, under the general cognomen of "bitters" and "remedies," that this medicine, which had been perfecting under the experiments of skilled pharmaceutists and chemists, had to overcome the distrust of all such "remedies" by the slow process of information, which has been so successfully done that to-day the druggist who does not embrace Hop Bitters in the list of his regularly ordered medicines, or the family that does not know its beneficial effects would be difficult to find.

THE MANUFACTORY

Is located on Mill street, from which emanates the preparation that is daily shipped to all parts of this country, and to sections of the globe over which the American flag does not float. The business is splendidly systematized, and everything goes on so quietly that it would be difficult to imagine that so extensive a business was done in that locality. Each department is overseen by competent persons. The items for bottles and for packing-boxes are enormously surprising, and those who furnish these two articles alone have reason to rejoice at the discovery of Hop Bitters, while the myriads of sick people who have been cured by this invaluable remedy have greater reason to rejoice.—Rochester Evening Express.

STERLING, Ill., August 22, 1879.

We feel we must write something of the success of Hop Bitters. Their sale is treble that of any other article of medicine. Hence we feel it but justice to you and your Bitters to say that it is a medicine of real merit and virtue, and doing much good and effecting great cures. Yours, J. F. & H. B. UTLEY.

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Bitters, and never took anything that did me as much good. I only took two bottles and I would not take $100 for the good they did me. I recommend them to my patients, and get the best of results from their use.

HOP BITTERS MFG. CO.:

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the highest encomiums, and give them credit for making cures—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness I shall continue to recommend them—something I have never before done with any other patent medicine.

I purchased five bottles of your Hop Bitters of Bishop & Co. last fall for my daughter, and am well pleased with the Bitters. They did her more good than all the medicine she has taken for six years. WM. T. McCLURE.

The above is from a very reliable farmer, whose daughter was in poor health for seven or eight years, and could obtain no relief until she used Hop Bitters. She is now in as good health as any person in this country. We have large sales, and they are making remarkable cures. W. H. BISHOP & CO.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1880.

Gents—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended, by so many, I concluded to give them a trial. I did, and now am around, and constantly improving, and am nearly as strong as ever.

HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS,
ROCHESTER, N. Y.,
SUNDAY, Jan. 25, 1880—10:45 P. M.

MR. SOULE:—

Dear Sir—By some mistake your note accompanying a dozen bottles of "Hop Bitters" and conveying also your kind offer to supply to our large family all of the medicines used there, was not given to me as it should have been done to acknowledge. At the monthly meeting held last week, Mrs. Shipman asked me if it had been answered. At once the matter was stated to us, and I was directed to thank you for your generosity. "The old ladies who have taken the Bitters feel built up by it already. Indeed they almost are persuaded that they have a new back-bone, so quickly have their old ones stiffened and strengthened. To have given so much happiness or comfort to these aged women, whose lives at best must be lonely, is a blessing which reacts most graciously upon ourselves. Such bread cast lovingly on life's waters, comes back at some time and in some way. May your gifts always bring equal comfort with this and may your reward be sure.

Thanking you in behalf of the Board, officially, of the old ladies gratefully, and for my own sake, that I have been permitted to hear of improvement for once in lieu of increased suffering, I am Yours truly,

LORAINE P. BEACH,
Cor. Sec'y.

Our Best Reward.

To the Hop Bitters Manufacturing Co.:

GENTS—I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Hop Bitters. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing the use of your Hop Bitters some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of the First Methodist Church of this place, and my whole congregation can testify to the great virtue of your bitters.

Very respectfully, REV. H. FERREBE.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 11, 1880.

Please accept our grateful acknowledgement for the Hop Bitters you were so kind to donate and which were such a benefit to us.

Yours, very gratefully,

HEAVY FIRE AT INDEPENDENCE.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

INDEPENDENCE, Or., July 9.—A fire broke out last night about 11 o'clock in the rear portion of Line's furniture store. There was a strong breeze from the south and the flames soon spread to adjoining buildings. Following is a list of losses and insurance:

E. Rowe's steam planing mill and sash factory. Loss, $4,000; no insurance.

H. J. Whitaker's building. Loss, $800; no insurance.

H. M. Line's furniture store and building. Loss $3500; insured $1500 in Commercial Union.

Miss Jennie M. Allen, millinery store. Loss $1200, insured $700 in Commercial Union.

T. J. Fry's building. Loss, $500; insured $200.

H. Hirschberg, dwelling and contents. Loss, $10.00; no insurance.

The Good Templar's lodge occupied the hall above the furniture store and lost their charter, regalia, records and lodge appurtenances.

Several other parties moving goods, mostly covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin, as there was no fire about the premises for a week. The wind drove sparks in showers for several blocks, and only by the most strenuous exertions on the part of willing citizens, was the fire confined to the buildings mentioned.

The Candidates.

[From the Springfield Republican, Ind.]

His (Gen. Hancock's) weakness, when tried by the test of fitness and comparison with his competitor, is that he is without achievement in public service and represents no positive grasp upon the future. He is a novice in statesmanship, and an expert who for sixteen years has been applying a broad, well trained mind in debate, in committees and in private study to the great constructive problems of government.

According to the census, Benton county contains 6922 inhabitants.

STATE FAIR SUGGESTIONS.

The experiment of holding the state fair in midsummer has been made, and while there is some dissatisfaction over the result, the large crowd of people present on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday put the society on a better financial footing than it has been for several years. It is to be hoped that the improvement of the pecuniary condition of the society will enable it to do several things which the misfortunes of the past few years have prevented. A great many people are in the habit of complaining at any management which they cannot control, and we may not expect the fair to satisfy all parties until it attains a point of perfection scarcely possible in human affairs.

There is a growing feeling between the advocates of the turf and those opposed, which does not forebode good, but which may be suppressed by pursuing a course calculated to foster all interests alike. The state is hardly large enough to support a purely agricultural exhibition, or it might be well to separate the turf from it, as doubtless those who have conscientious scruples against these trials of speed would then take an enhanced interest in what was left. There is no disguising the fact, however, at present, that the races constitute the main feature of the exhibition and that a large amount of the public patronage received by the society every year is attracted by them. It may be true that running and trotting horses are not so generally useful to agricultural people as are those of all work, but as all classes are catered to at the state fair the society cannot afford to even try the experiment of holding the fair without everything calculated to interest and please the public, which is not of itself improper. The idea is prevalent with some that the horsemen are overreaching in their demands upon the means and attention of the society; but leading men of the turf say they will agree to do as much in proportion to put the society upon a solid foundation as any other class of exhibitors, even if it is to forego the payment of the premiums which the society awards and allow the revenues to be used in liquidating the society's indebtedness or improving the grounds. But all would not perhaps agree to this. These premiums are seldom large enough to pay the expenses of shipping and exhibiting the articles and animals upon which they are offered, and though the Mechanics's Institute in this city has held a successful fair without offering any premium at all, it is doubtful if the experiment will bear repetition, and the offer of liberal awards to excellence will be found necessary. A careful revision of the premium list, however, might be made with much advantage. Owners of articles to which prizes have been awarded for several years in succession object to being ruled out, and say, "Bring something better and beat us." But that nothing better is shown is no evidence that there is nothing better in the country, or if there is nothing better in the country, the object of the exhibition, which is to stimulate improvements, has failed; so that in any event it might be well to fix a limit to the number of times which the first premium should be given to any one article.

In the matter of refusing to license the sale of liquors on the grounds this year the society made a mistake, either in refusing the license or in failing to enforce the rule against their sale. The revenue which would have been received from this source would have been at least $1500, and might have reached $3000, while the increased amount from the rental of the booths would have added a very considerable sum more. As it was the society lost this income and the liquors were as plentifully and about as openly sold in all parts of the grounds as before. The mistake, wherever it was made, is not likely to be repeated. Prohibition would be desirable if the society could enforce it.

Many people have come to the conclusion, and it appears to us, with good reason, that last year and this, the time of holding the fair open to the public is too much extended, and that the entire exhibition should at least be limited to one week. This should be done and all exhibits required to be in their places, properly arranged before the gates are opened to visitors at all. The society should not advertise that the fair will begin when it only means that the visitor will see a confused jumble of articles disarranged and everything about the grounds in a state of disagreeable chaos. Such as went upon the grounds on the first or second day of the fair this year would have found this condition prevailing and would have been unfavorably impressed. The fair cannot be opened to the public until there is a fair to open, and in the attempt a mistake is made. Take away the races, the booths, the music, the side shows and the dullness would be so great that even less than a week would suffice to clear the grounds of those who are mere spectators. It is perhaps true, as one of the executive committee remarked, that "every man is placed in this world to make his fellow men better;" but the strict philanthropist will find an agricultural fair a very poor instrument to work with. Not that man is necessarily more immoral at a fair than elsewhere, but never being designed as a Christianising means it cannot be used as such. The good people who desire to keep up religious services on the grounds are and ought always to be allowed the privileges which they desire; but the fair itself is essentially a worldly institution, and can be run only as such.

But after all that has been said about the exhibition this year, there was much merit in it, and Oregon is to be congratulated upon the intelligence and enterprise which her people show, in adapting the various improvements suggested by these competitive exhibitions, of the various interests and industries represented. Not alone in a matter of speed, for instance, is there a lively interest manifested in this state by lovers of the horse, but for all purposes for which this animal is used the competition is about as great. Hence a wonderful improvement in the general stock of horses has been made in the past few years, much of it due to the annual comparisons made of different classes at the state fairs. The same is true of horned cattle, sheep and even swine and poultry. None have attained perfection, but a most encouraging progress has been made, and in these matters, instead of being limited to the scrawny Cayuse or Spanish ponies, the bony long horned Spanish cattle, and the North Carolina porker, the state can boast of as pure thorough bred stock, with all the profits implied as any state in the union had a few years ago. Properly conducted the Oregon State Agricultural Society may do much more than any other means possible to accelerate the improvement already witnessed in this direction. With this view the board of directors ought to exercise the utmost care in all arrangements affecting such important interests. The society's business will not conduct itself; it must be conducted with foresight, intelligence and good judgment, and then the fairs will be successful in the estimation of the people as well as for the society itself.

UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES.

By the Springfield Republican the political situation, as it exists now, is stated in this way: "The country can now draw a deep, grateful breath of relief and wait until Messrs. Garfield and Hancock issue their letters of acceptance. This fight is between two brave old soldiers who aspire, the one to extend, the other to gain his civil leadership. Now let them tell us just what they will try to do for their fellow citizens." This might imply that both the candidates are good men—equally good and equally worthy of the confidence of the country. But after all, each will be judged by the tendencies and purposes of his party. They who support General Hancock will esteem him a good man because he is expected to favor the general ideas and objects of the democratic party. On the contrary they who support General Garfield believe him to be a good man for the position for which he has been named because his election will vindicate and sustain the cause and policy which the republican party has always supported. It has been well said, and it cannot be too often said, that there are certain questions at issue, certain fundamental principles on trial. The republicans espouse one creed or cause, and the democrats another. These creeds are to be voted upon next fall, and they will determine the votes of all except the mercenary crowd, who would make their highest privilege a thing of merchandise; and that other floating crowd which has no principle and no anxiety for results except to be on the strong side. The men who vote for Garfield will vote for the general policy which has prevailed in the past, those who vote for Hancock will vote for an endorsement of the administration of Andrew Johnson and the absolute right of states to do anything they please to do. There is no advantage on either side so far as the tariffs, internal improvements, the re-establishment of our commerce or a hundred other things are concerned. Wise editors tell us that the bloody shirt is out of this campaign, but the causes which gave pertinency to the bloody shirt cry are all at work. There is a solid south arraigned against a nearly solid north, and this election is really to decide whether, in the matter of the reconstruction of the southern states, the republican party has been right or wrong, whether it exacted too much or not, and whether the leading men of the south, backed by the democratic statesmen and democratic press of the north, in opposing every act of the republican party touching the reconstruction, the finances, the debt and everything else have been right or not. Just now an ocean of ink is being exhausted in the discussion of men. Before November there will be a discussion of principles, and on the conclusion of that discussion the election will be determined.

Probably it is true, as the New York Herald asserts, that the election hangs not on Oregon and California, but New York, Connecticut, Indiana and New Jersey, "where there is no such interest in the Chinese question as would change a single vote." That doubtless expresses the real state of the case at this time; but the time may come when they will have far more interest in the Chinese question than we have here. The Pacific coast man can, on an average, make a living despite the Mongolian. There are a hundred things to which men here may turn. Mineral wealth is not yet half developed, and there are still vast areas of public land awaiting cultivation. But let there be an inundation of Chinese upon any eastern city, and there will be just two things for the poorer classes then to do. They will either have to retreat before the Mongolian or starve. It is a simple question of mathematics.

John Mackay, the great bonanza man, walks about Virginia in a $30 suit of gray clothes, goes to work in his mine at 6 o'clock in the morning and lives at the Gould & Curry office in the plainest style. There isn't a store clerk in Carson but lives as well as he. The most glaring fault about Mackay is that he lies so regarding his charities. He distributes about $200,000 a year to the poor and if anybody questions him about the matter he declares there's nothing in it.

It is estimated that from July 1 1880, to June 30, 1881, 7500 recruits will be needed to replace soldiers who quit the service by reason of death, discharge and desertion. Within the last eighteen months about 1000 have been discharged by order of the secretary of war. Of these at least twenty-five per cent. enlisted under false pretenses. The sum appropriated by congress is $75,000, a sum $50,000 less than the amount asked for by the secretary of war.

Philadelphia claims that the census now being taken will show that city to be the greatest manufacturing centre of the world. The value of manufactured products in the city is expected to reach a grand total of $625,000,000 this year, and to this vast sum the textile manufacturers of Philadelphia and outlying districts will probably contribute more than $150,000,000.

The New York Tribune says: "There is not a democratic politician who has ever been in congress who does not know that a more honorable man than General Garfield never sat in that body. Not a man of them believes a word of the slanders against him, or would dare to say he believed one."

The census men can find only 124,000 people in Colorado. That state has been claiming another congressman, but it has not yet a population equal to the basis required for one. With all its boasting it is still much behind Oregon, whose population will be about 170,000.

The Union Pacific railroad has commenced building a road from Julesburg to Greeley, about 140 miles, which is to be called the Colorado Extension, and will shorten the distance between Denver and Omaha sixty miles.

The official return of the census supervisor of Philadelphia gives that city a population of 847,542. The officially declared population of Indianapolis is 75,077. That of Omaha is 30 605.

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING.

In France, England, Germany, and in the Eastern States, armies of White people of both sexes are employed in designing, coloring, measuring dressing, cutting, sewing, etc., etc., and in the States of California and Oregon most all of this kind of labor is performed by Chinamen; but I make it my business to keep my store clear from this China made trash. Workingmen of this city and all over Oregon, to YOU I make it known, that there is not a single dollar's worth of Goods in my Store that have ever been handled by a Chinaman; and wish it publicly understood, without FEAR or FAVOR, that I shall at all times stock my Store with only such Goods as are made by WHITE labor, and I ask your patronage.

THE LEVEE QUESTION.

Judge Stott Decides that Ordinance No 321 is Unconstitutional—Decides that Working on the Levee is not a Trespass

Orders all the Persons to be Discharged—Appeal Taken

The application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of J H Pomeroy vs James H Lappeus chief of police came up in state circuit court yesterday morning This case had been argued Thursday afternoon at much length by counsel in behalf of the city and those who represented the Oregonian Railway Co and the matter taken under advisement by Judge Stott until yesterday morning

The argument on Thursday was to [illegible] the power which the charter gave the city to pass the ordinance

On the coming in of court yesterday morning Judge Stott stated that he had not had time to consider the questions presented but that there was a constitutional provision which seemed to him decisive of the case He then referred to subdivision 2, section 23 article IV of the constitution of the state of Oregon which provides that the legislative assembly shall not pass special or local laws * * * for the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors.

The city attorney Mr Moreland stated that in his opinion the section referred to could not affect the ordinance in question but asked for time until 11 o clock to prepare an argument thereon which was granted

At 11 o clock the question whether this section of the constitution rendered ordinance No 321 which provides for the punishment of trespass on the public squares and other public property of the city of Portland invalid was quite extensively argued Hons J N Dolph and E D Shattuck appearing with the city attorney while Judge Bellinger appeared with Mr Hughes for the petitioners.

At the conclusion of the argument Judge Stott stated that the argument had not changed his opinion in the least that as the ordinance mentioned and applied only to public property of the city of Portland it was special legislation and therefore null and void under the constitutional provision quoted He then ordered the discharge of the prisoners

The decision was much commented on both by the members of the bar and the public generally and the almost universal opinion was that the decision upon the constitutional question was by far too narrow and contracted and that it could not be sustained

We are informed that an appeal will be taken to-day to the supreme court

All the persons arrested up to Thursday night charged with trespass were released from custody and all who were arrested yesterday—about ten—were allowed to go on their own recognizance until the matter can be decided by the supreme court.

Just what course will be pursued by the city authorities preliminary to the decision of the supreme court is not known yet However the city authorities do not propose to concede one solitary right in the premises

Meantime the work of grading on the public levee continues by the Oregonian Railway Company

TO BE SPANNED.

FLATTERING PROMISE OF A BRIDGE OVER THE WILLAMETTE.

No Nonsense about the Matter, but Active Steps Taken to Begin, Push Forward and Complete the Enterprise

You ll see it yet
A bridge across the Willamette

If the renowned author of the well known poem from which the above is an extract had waited until the latter part of the year 1881 to compose the effusion he would in all probability have changed one or two stanzas The indications are that a bridge will be built across the Willamette river before eighteen months shall have passed by

The legislature of Oregon at its last session granted to an association known as the Portland Bridge Company a charter to build a bridge from Portland to East Portland This association has done nothing toward prosecuting the work for which they were organized For the past few months negotiations have been pending between the directors of the Portland Bridge Company and the Pacific Bridge Building Company of San Francisco and within the past week were so far concluded that the latter corporation took the first step in the work of breaking ground Thursday afternoon They dug a trench at the foot of Morrison street laid a row of heavy stone covered it with cement and filled the excavation to the surface The relations between the San Francisco and the Portland company and the terms of partnership in the work are private and will not be made public for a few days The capital required will be furnished by both companies the San Francisco corporation providing the larger share in the shape of the bridge itself As soon as the water recedes work on the abutments will be commenced and with favorable weather from $10 000 to $20 000 will be expended in labor and material this fall Whenever the San Francisco company shall have fulfilled their portion of the contract viz build the bridge the Portland company will surrender their charter to a new organization to be composed of both companies

Wm Beck president of the Portland bridge company stated to an OREGONIAN reporter that all preliminary arrangements had been made and that the work would be carried to completion without delay He had not the least doubt that the structure would be completed by Sept 1 1881

The bridge will be built of iron and have a draw of 218 feet which can be opened and closed within three minutes It will be wide enough for two street railroad tracks two roadways for teams and and at each side walks four feet in width for passengers The eastern terminus of the bridge will be at N or at O street The cost will slightly exceed $150 000

FUNERAL OF O PERRY VINTON

The following account of the funeral and tribute to the memory of O Perry Vinton is taken from the New York Star of June 22d The deceased was a brother of Mr Francis Vinton the very accomplished musician of this city

Entered into rest (June 1 1880) in the 30th year of his age at Pomfret Conn. Oliver Perry Vinton Priest son of the late Rev Francis Vinton D D of Trinity church New York and Eliza b [illegible]

Since [illegible] ill health compelled him to give up [illegible] had been engaged in [illegible] and his own request brought [illegible] and the [illegible]

[illegible] the Mount Calvary [illegible]

[illegible] chapel members of the [illegible] At the door of the chapel the body was met by the [illegible] Rev [illegible] Mary [illegible] by the [illegible] of the [illegible] Preceded by the Acolyte [illegible] the sanctuary [illegible] Deacon Robert H Paine [illegible] Perry celebrant the last in black vestments a solemn requiem was sung the Rev H M-Smythe acting as precentor the Kyrie and Benedictus being Gounod s the Introit Agnus and Lord s Prayer from the office for the dead arranged by Elbridge T Gerry Esq and the most chiefly organ plan De Profundis was chanted [illegible] the Gloria in excelsis. On either side of the body which lay in the choir three tall tapers burned and a black cross stood at the head The coffin was covered with a richly decorated purple pall On the altar decorated with vases of lilies there were also many lights. The large church was well filled with a devout congregation uniting with the priests in pleading the holy sacrifice and stifled sobs showed the love that the people both of Mount Calvary and St Mary bore to their late priest. At one o clock while the bell of both churches and chapel tolled solemnly the body was borne across the street to Mount Calvary, the choir and clergy preceding singing a metrical litany to a very peculiar and solemn tune in which the deep bass Miserere of uniting at intervals produced a very beautiful effect of harmony At this church the body was met by the choir and vestry St Mary s choir taking their place in the nave At Mount Calvary the regular order for the burial of the dead was sung the anthem and the usual funeral chants by the choir The hymn Jesus live was sung after the lesson and Sun of my soul as the recessional while the office was taken by the Rev W F Brand and the Rev J S B Hodges D D The clergy of Mount Calvary sat on either side of the coffin in their cassocks only as members of the household, while other clergy in surplices occupied the front pews The retables of the beautiful marble altar filled with vases of pure white flowers and among them were a great number of lighted tapers the more conspicuous against the dark folds of the purple dossal On taking carriages after the services the long procession proceeded to St John s church Waverly around which is a beautiful country church yard Met here by the rector the Rev Francis Stubbs the procession formed in the following order the master of ceremonies the cross bearer and St. Mary's choristers with their organist Mr Aug Johnstone the chorister of Mount Calvary church with their organist Mr G E Stubbs the clergy in surplices the officiating clergy Mr Brand and Dr Hodges the bier borne by members of the business committee of St Mary s and on either side the honorary pallbearers in surplices following the bier Mount Calvary clergy and the family of the deceased as chief mourners, the vestry of Mount Calvary the business committee of St Mary s the Sisters of All Saints (the colored) Sisters of St Mary the Virgin, with St. Mary s Girls Academy and a great number of both congregations. As the procession wound through the beautiful grounds toward the quiet spot where already the late Rector of Mount Calvary the Rev Joseph Richey and Sister Harriett Superior of All Saints lie the Miserere (Psalm li) was chanted The anthem I heard a Voice was beautifully sung to Mr Gerry s music by St. Mary s choristers part as a solo by a treble voice with all the melody and sweetness for which the voices of the colored people are justly celebrated Hymns were also sung while the grave was being filled joyful hymns full of hope and the Resurrection, and then beautiful floral offerings of every device branches of palm and sheaves of wheat were placed upon the grave by loving hands of both congregations. So was committed to God s keeping, body and soul of one whose gentle spirit untiring love and energy too great for the frail body it animated had endeared him to all among whom the few but useful years of his ministry were spent May he rest in peace and perpetual light shine on him

SAN FRANCISCO FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—There has been little done during the past week and indications point to a dull and uninteresting freight market for the balance of the month. Wheat is coming in slowly and there is apparently little disposition on the part of shippers to take up tonnage, while ships are in such strong position, owing to the small number in port disengaged and the light amount due, that owners are not disposed to press the market for vessels to arrive here. Some little business is reported, though but slight additions to the list have been made of late. Probably not more than 35 or 36 vessels, all told, have been taken, most of them having late cancelling dates. The last charter reported is the ship Nereus, 1108 tons of wheat to Cork, U. K., £2, 17s, 6d. The only other wheat charter is the ship Alfred D. Snow, 2507 tons, wheat and merchandise to Liverpool, private, but supposed to be £2, 13s. The ship Challenger, 1450 tons, has been chartered to load coal from Departure Bay to this port.

Bags and Bagging—Wheat bags are offered freely to-day in large lots at 9⅝c, and it is likely that 9½c, cash would not be refused; still we do not hear of any lots being offered at less than 9⅝c.

Sugar—Local refiners have agreed to an advance of ¼c. on all whites except dry granulated and ⅛c. on all yellows. Revised list is as follows: Circle A crushed, fine crushed and cube, 11¾c.; powdered, 12c.; fancy extra do., 12⅜c.; granulated, 11½c for dry, and 11c. for moist; golden C and Eldorado C, 10c. half bbls., and 100 lb. boxes ¼c. more, and small boxes ½c. more. No orders received for less than 25 bbls.

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, July 9.—The freight market via Cape Horn remains much the same as noted during the past three months, and there is no material change either in the amount of offerings or in rates. Therefore, while at the same time there is no encouraging feature in the outlook, the impression gains that the remainder of the year will be nearly as quiet as that already past. Rates are unsettled and nominal.

Railroad freights are fairly active but not so much from outside parties as from those who have contracts and are now forwarding some of their goods. Shipments of the past week amounted to 819 pkgs.

Isthmus freights remain dull and the departure to-morrow will have but a light cargo for the California market. There seems to be more movement in merchandise.

Markets—Breadstuffs irregular and unsettled: higher for wheat by 2@5c to cover July contracts. shippers out of market provisions demoralized under collapse of Chicago speculation and pork, 20@25c off.

Lard, 7¼@10.
Rio coffee—Unchanged.
Refined sugars—Quiet and very firm.
Hides—Quiet.
Turpentine—Quiet, 34@34½c.
Petroleum—Very strong, cases, 20½@21½c.

Crop Prospects in the Northwest.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Times has crop prospects from the northwest which are very conflicting. Some sections report that wheat was never better, while others and neighboring ones say that it is almost a failure. It summarizes in the following headings: Encouraging reports from the harvest fields of the great northwest, indications being that the wheat crop will be better than the average yield.—Some of the fall sown grain and winter killed or materially damaged by rain.—The lake shore belt in Wisconsin affected slightly by rust and bug.—Large increase of acreage in the country along the Northern Pacific road.—Prospects excellent for a yield largely in excess of any previous year.—Minnesota farmers smiling at the promise of full granaries and fair prices.—Less complaint than usual at harvest time from the agricultural districts.

The outlook for corn and oats is reported as excellent, but many things are likely to intervene to make it less favorable. Heavy rains this morning and last night and a threatening sky are causing much anxiety among bears on 'change to-day, as fair weather for two or three weeks is indispensable for successful completion of harvests. The ground is pretty wet already and will not bear much rain.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Wheat excited, higher and unsettled; 96c for cash, 95⅝c for July, 93c for August, 90 for September.

The English Market.

LIVERPOOL, July 9.—A leading grain circular says: The grain trade has acquired greater strength during the week, with a revival in the speculative as well as the consumptive demand. Wheat in all positions has further improved in the principal markets of the country and is generally a shilling dearer. Floating cargoes were in good request at an advance in the same proportion. Those on coast were taken steadily for the continent, independently of large shipments hither direct from Atlantic ports. To-day's market was firm, and the attendance was an average one. There was a moderate consumptive demand for white corn, and prices advanced. New Mexico corn receded slightly in consequence of the slackness of inquiry.

Liverpool Grain Market.

LIVERPOOL, July 9.—Breadstuffs are firm; wheat, 9s 9d@9s 9d per cental; average California white, 9s 6d@9s for red western spring. Receipts of wheat for the past three days, 311,000 centals, including 210,000 American.

Philadelphia Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—Wool is firm and prices steady. Receipts of new crop are very small.

Gold and Stock Company's Reports.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.

Receipts—2500 centals wheat, 600 qr sacks flour, 950 sacks potatoes, 11,000 doz eggs.

Butter—The market is not quite so firm and is better supplied at 22½c. an extreme.

Eggs—There was a fair supply on the market to-day, but trade was slow at 20@21c; however the undertone is good.

Wool—Sonoma and Humboldt, strictly fancy, faultless in color, strength, dryness and clear if new, held at 33c34c. Other grades nominal.

Bags—Machine sewed steady.
Peaches—Bxs best, $1 50@$1 60.
Apricots—Bxs, $1 50.
New Apples—Choice, $1 75.
Oranges—Sicily, $8@9; Australian $6 50.

Wheat—Market is firm in sympathy with European and eastern advices; but for the scarcity of tonnage the demand would be active at advance in values.

Charters—The previously reported Nereus gets 54s 6d and A. D. Snow probably 53s.

Oats—Feed, choice to extra choice Oregon, best offer $1 40.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, July 9.

Wheat—95⅝c for August.
Pork—$13 25 for August.
Short Ribs—$7 10.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 9.

Wheat—Strong.
Wool and Flour—Quiet.

BEERBOHM.

LONDON, July 9.—Floating cargoes of wheat improving. Cargoes on passage and for shipment very inactive. Mark Lane wheat a turn dearer. Good wheat cargoes off coast per 480 lbs less usual commission, No. 2 spring, 48s 6d@47s; red winter, 50s@50s 6d. Good cargoes California off coast per 500 lbs, 46s. London quotations good shipping California wheat just shipped or to be promptly shipped 44s 6d; same nearly due, 45s 6d. English and French country markets rising. Liverpool spot wheat strong. No. 1 standard, 10s; No. 2 standard, 9s 6d; red winter, 10s 1d; white Michigan, 9s 9d. Red average spring. No. 3 to 2, 8s 4d@7s 7d.

King of the Blood.

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from Impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO.:—For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I have been troubled with Scrofula for the past ten years, which so affected my eyes that I was completely blind for six months. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been.

Yours truly,
MRS. S. WEATHERLOW, Sardinia, N. Y.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

LIVER PILLS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled; his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit these diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty [illegible] who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
